Newspaper report of Richard's death:

The Rochester and Chatham Journal of 31 August 1878 carried the following item:

A LIGHTERMAN DROWNED

The dead body of a lighter man named Richard Furminger was found in Furrells Creek at Rochester early this morning, by a man named George Cornelius. The deceased's vessel was unloading coals in the creek. The deceased, who was an old man, belonged to Maidstone, but was in the employ of Mr Haymen, of Rochester. He is supposed to have accidentally fallen from his vessel in the night. An inquest is to be held this evening at the Star Hotel. Unfortunately the inquest was not reported in the next week's paper, and the original Coroner's records do not survive, so no further details are available.

There is a Richard White b.abt 1831 Boxley shown as Son in Law. !
Lewis and Caroline Mantle are also there (Elizabeths children from previous marriage) and there are shown as Son in Law and Daughter in law. So is it possible that Richard is Elizabeth son also ?

1861 Census RG9; Piece: 503; Folio: 99; Page: 34 Maidstone

Is the surname spelt Firminger on the census ???????

When George furminger married Elizabeth Mantle, one witness was Mary Ann Hayward.

A Mary Ann Hayward married (in 1865) Edward Furminger b.1842 , the nephew of George. Edward is my Great Great Grandfather. This Mary was only born 1846, so unlikely to have been the witness, but maybe there is a family connection.

Notes for BADEN POWELL MAFEKING FREEBORN:

The name 'Baden Powell Mafeking Freeborn' is of certain significance. First of all, Robert Baden Powell was the man who formed the Boy Scout organization January 24, 1908 and I'm not sure of any connection between the two. Secondly, Baden was named after the relief of the Seige of Mafeking during the Boer War in South Africa.

According to Muriel Pegg, his grand daughter, Baden had no family of his own and that he and Elsie May were a devoted couple. After Elsie May's death, he was a very lonely man.

These are notes from Muriel Pegg to Jack Freeborn.

Notes for GEORGE ALFRED FURMINGER:
1891 Census RG12 718 F98 P9 Sittingbourne

If Annie did die in 1895, then it looks like George and his children are living with his parents in 1901 census:

1901 Census RG13; Piece: 812; Folio: 27; Page: 14 28 Shakespear Road, Sittingbourne

According to his brother Edward Chales's will made in 1924, George was left £10 to have a "barrow" built. This suggests that George was working, possibly, in the family business. (greengrocers, trading as 'Kent Farmers Co-operation' in the Borough Market, Southwark)
